Please provide one of the following documents that indicates your high school completion status when you begin college in 2016–2017 academic year:

- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy your General Educational Development (GED) certificate/transcript or state equivalent test.
- An academic transcript that indicates you have successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office.
